

Request for Proposal Workshop

Don't miss this FREE opportunity to learn more about Requests for Proposals!

Mark your calendars!

Millions of dollars are awarded every year to small businesses by federal and state agencies for goods and services. Gary Trujillo from SBA will cover the Federal Government's Request for Proposal (RFP) process in two parts. The first part will consist of responding to the Solicitation with the primary focus on preparing the cost proposal (Bid). The second part will be participant interaction consisting of each participant preparing his/her own bid.
