

This project addresses proposed changes to existing routes, including:

Routes requiring brushing or blading of road surface.

Routes requiring removal or installation of earth berms or gates.

This project does not address proposed changes that require:

New construction or reconstruction to open (for example, reconstruction where front-end obliteration has occurred).