NEMO 2008

Tom Brann and Larry Gering will be hosting NEMO 2008. The following information was sent to the NEMO email list about this year's meeting; updates will be provided as they become available.

Tom and Larry investigated the entire Maine coast (only by internet, email and phone) looking for an appropriate venue. The Stone House in Freeport (NEMO 2005) is no longer available. The facility that best meets our needs was found in Bar Harbor, on Mount Desert Island. In 2007, October 8th was the peak of the fall color season on the coast.

The 12th Annual Northeastern Mensurationists Organization (NEMO) Meeting will be held on October 8-9, 2008 at the . . .

The Bar Harbor Hotel - Bluenose Inn is an elegant immaculate treasure featuring breathtaking views of Frenchman Bay. Set atop a magnificent granite-terraced hillside, the Hotel is one of the most beautiful spots on the Atlantic. The Inn offers 97 classically appointed rooms and two person suites in the distinguished Mizzentop and Stenna Nordica guest buildings, enjoy AAA four diamond dining at the Rose Garden, cocktails in the magnificent Great Room, heated indoor and outdoor pools, a spa and complete fitness center. The Inn is just two minutes from the main entrance to Acadia National Park, and only 600 yards to the dock where the famed Bluenose Ferry makes it's daily trip to and from Yarmouth, Nova Scotia.

Larry Gering, Department of Forestry and Natural Resources at Clemson University, is Program Chair. If you intend to present a paper, send him a title and abstract ( lgering@clemson.edu ). Based on the draft agenda, this meeting will provide 6.5 hours of SAF continuing education hours

Tom Brann, School of Forest Resources, University of Maine, is Local Arrangements Chair. He will handle registration and has arranged for a special room rate at the Bar Harbor Hotel or at the nearby Wonder View Inn. ( TomBrann@maine.edu )

Registration

Full registration includes welcome coffee, lunch, afternoon break and dinner on Wednesday and morning coffee (full breakfast, if desired, is available on your own) and morning break on Thursday. Dinner will include clam chowder and traditional ceasar salad and your choice of either a Downeast Lobster Dinner with whole lobster, steamed clams, corn-on-the-cob, etc or beef tenderloin
