

VISITOR GUIDELINES

This is one of the few places in the world where visitors can view grizzly and black bears in the wild. Bears can be extremely dangerous. To help you have a pleasurable and safe experience at Fish Creek, please read and follow these guidelines.

- Stay inside the gate on the boardwalk
- Do not approach streams or ponds
- Obey Forest Service staff

No food

No pets

No fishing

No hunting

No camping

- Site hours: 6:00 am to 10:00 pm

ALASKA REGION

TONGASS NATIONAL FOREST