

It's free!!!

to the 4th annual
Nature Spooktacular

Come find out about your favorite creepy crawlies and hairy scaries that go BUMP in the night.

- Join the eerie staff at the Begich, Boggs Visitor Center for a frighteningly educational experience.
- Crawl on in to the Begich, Boggs Visitor Center (located in Portage Valley) on Saturday, October 26th, 1:00 pm - 6:00 pm
- This is your chance to come face to face with an owl, get the low down on decomposition and just go batty!
- The Bird Treatment and Learning Center will be doing a live demonstration with a Northern Hawk Owl at 4:00pm.
