

MUSICAL CURRENTS

A L&C Bicentennial Concert
in the Gates of the Mountains
Helena National Forest

Saturday– July 16, 2005
4:00 pm - 9:30 pm

Musicians will be “staged” at various river locations blending the performing arts with the natural and historic values of the Gates of the Mountains– Missouri River corridor. The “Currents” final concert will feature Odyssey West at Meriwether Picnic Area beach.

The public can enjoy music from their private boats or tour boats. Tour boats will include a commercial guided program by nationally renown historians and authors Stephenie Ambrose-Tubbs, Mike Logan and Hal Stearns.

Featuring

- Native American Drum Groups
- Native American Flutist– Daryl Shortman
- The Pretty Good String Band
- Fiddler- Rick Strohmyer
- L&C Music- Sid Stromme
- Celtic Music- Irish Stew
- Jazz- Wilbur Rehmann & Ken Nelson
- The Fiddlin’ Foresters
- Rob Quist & Jack Gladstone in Odyssey West
- L&C Re-enactors

Schedule

- 4:00, 4:20, 4:40 Tour boats depart
- 4:00-5:45 River performances
- 5:45-7:00 Interpretive programs- Meriwether Picnic Area
- 7:00-8:30 Meriwether Beach Concert
- 9:30 Arrive back at marina

Tour boats for this event are SOLD OUT! Boats depart the marina at 4:00, 4:20, 4:40 pm and dock at Meriwether Picnic Area 90 minutes later. All boats return to marina at 9:30 pm.

There is no charge for private boats.
Info: (406) 495-3711

Hosted by

The Helena National Forest, Montana Discovery Foundation, Gates of the Mountains Foundation, Montana Committee for the Humanities, the Myrna Loy Center, Gates of the Mountains Foundation and the L&C Trail Bicentennial Commission of L&C County