

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN FEIS AND DEIS

A “Draft” Environmental Impact Statement was prepared by the Lewis and Clark National Forest and released for public comment on July 7, 2006. Over 1,700 public comments were received on the DEIS. Based on public comments, the Interdisciplinary Team (IDT) of resource specialists developed additional analysis to better answer public concerns, or clarify discussion of effects. As a result, this “Final” Environmental Impact Statement (FEIS) was prepared.

Highlighted bold text in this FEIS denotes additional text or changes in text between the “draft” and “final” EIS.
