Slate Creek Ranger Station Announces New Office Hours

Grangeville, Idaho: The Slate Creek Ranger Station of the Salmon River Ranger District will begin new office hours on September 29, 2008. The office will be open to the public Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. (Pacific Standard Time). The Slate Creek Ranger Station museum will remain available free to the public during normal business hours.

The public is encouraged to contact us if we can be of assistance in any way. You may contact the district by mail at: Slate Creek Ranger Station, 304 Slate Creek Road, White Bird, Idaho 83554; or by phone at (208) 839-2211. The physical address of the district is U.S. Highway 95, mile marker 214. We look forward to offering continued service to the community.
