

JUNEAU FEDERAL EMPLOYEE ASSOCIATION HANDS OUT AWARDS

JUNEAU, Alaska – The Juneau Federal Employee Association (JFEA) held their annual awards luncheon on May 28, 2008. The awards luncheon recognized Juneau area federal employees for outstanding work in volunteer service, administrative support, team project and top federal employee of the year for accomplishments in 2007. The award winners are Mr. Michael Goldstein, U.S.D.A. Forest Service, for Outstanding Volunteer Service Award, Ms. Noreen K. Folkerts, U. S. Coast Guard, for Outstanding Administrative Support Award, Mr. Kim Custer, Mr. Arthur Puustinen, Mr. John Lindsey - Information Technology and Electronics Maintenance Team at NOAA's National Weather Service Juneau office, for Outstanding Team Project Award, and Ms. Tamara Bledsoe, NOAA Fisheries Service, for the 2008 JFEA Federal Employee of the Year Award.

2008 JFEA Awardees photo by PA3 Levi Read: Left to Right: JFEA judge Connie McKenzie, Special Assistant to Senator Murkowski's office; Denny Bschor, JFEA Vice President, Kim Custer, NOAA National Weather Service; Michael Goldstein, Forest Service; Tamara Bledsoe, NOAA Fisheries Service.

(Noreen Folkerts photo) Noreen Folkerts, U. S. Coast Guard, was unable to make the luncheon.

For more information about JFEA, refer to the following website:

<http://www.fs.fed.us/r10/jfea/index.html>