23 Volunteer Positions Available on the Ashley National Forest

Vernal, Utah ... The Ashley National Forest is looking for 23 volunteers for various positions across the Forest this summer.

Volunteer positions available for the summer of 2009 include; campground hosts, campground maintenance and inspections, river information booth receptionists on the Green River, trail construction and maintenance crew member, wilderness ranger and wilderness information specialist in the High Uintas Wilderness Area.

“In 2008 163 volunteers provided $639,352 dollars in services to the Ashley National Forest. Volunteering provides needed services while making memories that last a lifetime”, stated Kevin B. Elliott, Forest Supervisor.

Some amenities such as trailer pads with full hookups, other housing options and a monetary allowance are offered with volunteer positions on a case by case basis.
