Accomplishment Report

Recreation Fee Program

2007 Accomplishments

- Treated noxious weeds in the Main and Middle Fork Salmon River corridors and around river campsites.
- Staffed two river patrols on both the Main and Middle Fork Salmon rivers (about 30 total patrol rotations).
- Continued the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes Native American interpreter program.
- Provided checkers at both of the main river portals at Corn Creek and Boundary Creek. They assign campsites and provide interpretive and safety introduction to the rivers.
- Continued the agreement with USGS for operation of the Middle Fork river gauge.
- Operated the Four River Lottery for the Main and Middle Fork Salmon rivers, the Selway and Hells Canyon.
- Operated and maintained two “scat” machines at the upper and lower ends of the Main Salmon.
- Treated dust on Main Salmon River Road and Boundary Creek access roads.
- Conducted maintenance work on Indian Creek and Boundary Creek launch ramps.

Special Feature

The Salmon-Challis recreation fee program includes 30 campgrounds, 8 cabin rentals and Main and Middle Fork Salmon River use fees.

Yellowjacket cabin is a historic guard station with beautiful views, a large front porch, 2 bedrooms and horse corrals.
