

Attention All Target Shooters!

Due to extreme fire danger,
Los Padres National Forest is closed to target shooting for the duration of the 2004 fire season. **

The Ojai Valley Gun Club off of Hwy 33 is open to the public for target shooting as follows:

- Public Shoot Day is on the fourth Saturday of every month, except for April. Public is welcome on any weekend to participate in scheduled events.
- For fees and hours, visit the Calendar at www.ovgc.net.
- Target frames are available at the range, but participants must bring their own ammunition, targets and staple gun.
- Tracer, incendiary, armor-piercing ammo, etc., are not permitted on premises.
- Shooting glasses and ear protection required for everyone, including spectators.
- A Range master is present at all times.
- Shooters must sign in, and obey all range commands and safety regulations.
- Picnic tables and restrooms are on the range grounds for the convenience of the shooters.
- Open Bolt Indicators are required on all rifles and handguns, with the exception of back powder firearms. OBIs are available from the Range master for $1 each.
- For more information, contact Dave Manning at (805) 652-1345 or visit web site.
