Plumas National Forest to Host Children's Fishing Derby

A free Fishing Derby for children and teens ages 15 years and younger will be held on Saturday, June 16, 2007. The derby will be held from 8:00am to 12:00pm at Spanish Creek Campground, and is hosted by the Plumas National Forest Fisheries Department. Join the event for a morning of fishing, contests, prizes, food, and fun. Prizes will be given to contest winners at 11:00 am. Spanish Creek Campground is located about 5 miles west of Quincy on Hwy 70, past Keddie and over the Spanish Creek Bridge.

June 9 and September 22 are also designated as free fishing days, when for one day, a license is not required for those 16 years and older, so bring the whole family.

For more information, contact Elise Reierson (530) 283-7829, or Tina Hopkins, Fisheries Biologist (530) 283-1819, or the Plumas National Forest website: www.fs.fed.us/r5/plumas.
