Mt. Hough Ranger District Seeks Community Feedback on Rich Fire Recovery Project

The Mt. Hough Ranger District of the Plumas National Forest is seeking input (scoping) from interested community members to guide the development of the recovery project resulting from the Rich Fire which occurred in mid-summer of 2008.

Employees from the ranger district will be on hand to discuss the Rich Fire Recovery Project at an open house on Wednesday, February 18, at the Mt. Hough Ranger District Upper Conference Room, 39696 Hwy 70 in Quincy, from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm. The community is invited to express concerns or support for project opportunities that the district has identified and to also share ideas.

For more detailed information and for any special needs related to accessibility, please contact Andrew Hart, Project Leader for the Rich Fire Recovery Project, at (530) 283-7643, or Joe Smailes at (530) 283-7654.
