

National Passes Comparison Matrix – Page 1

Pass name	What is it?	Who is it for?	Time period	Cost	Admits	Covers	How to get one
National Parks Pass 	Entrance pass to national parks that charge entrance fees	General Public	One year from date of purchase	$50	Admits the pass owner and any accompanying passengers in a private vehicle. In those areas where a per person fee is charged, the pass admits the pass owner, spouse, parents and children.	Entrance fees.	Online at www.nps.gov , or at most national parks. Purchase includes a national parks Pop-Out map, Proud Partner vehicle decal, and free GoParks Newsletter subscription offer.
Golden Eagle Hologram 	A hologram sticker can be purchased and affixed to a National Parks Pass. The National Parks Pass with the hologram provides the same benefit as the golden Eagle.	General Public	One year from date of purchase	$15		Entrance fees	At any national park or wildlife refuge, Forest Service or Bureau of Land Management site that charges entrance fees. Holograms available at the Shasta-Trinity National Forest Headquarters on April 30, 2003.
Golden Eagle Passport 	Entrance pass to national parks, national wildlife refuges, Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management sites that charge entrance fees. Also valid at high impact recreation areas and developed day-use recreation sites which may include picnic sites, low development boat ramps, trail heads, visitor centers and parking. *	General Public	One year from date of purchase	$65		Entrance fees	At any national park or wildlife refuge, Forest Service or Bureau of Land Management site that charges entrance fees. Available at www.natlforests.org or by calling (877)465-2727 for Golden Eagle Passport only (most major credit cards accepted). Also available in person at the Shasta-Trinity National Forest Headquarters on April 30, 2003.
Golden Age Passport 	Entrance pass to national parks, national wildlife refuges, Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management sites that charge entrance fees. It also provides a 50% discount on federal recreation use fees.	Citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. that are age 62 or older.	Lifetime	$10		Entrance fees plus a 50% discount on federal recreation use fees for most facilities and services (excludes concessions and special recreation permits).	Purchase it IN PERSON at any national park, national wildlife refuge, Corps of Engineers, Forest Service or Bureau of Land Management office. Proof of age must be shown.

National Passes Comparison Matrix – Page 2

Pass name	What is it?	Who is it for?	Time period	Cost	Admits	Covers	How to get one
Golden Access Passport 	Entrance pass to national parks, national wildlife refuges, Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management sites that charge entrance fees. It also provides a 50% discount on federal recreation use fees	Citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. that are legally blind or permanently disabled.	Lifetime	No Charge	Admits the pass owner and any accompanying passengers in a private vehicle. In those areas where a per person fee is charged, the pass admits the pass owner, spouse, parents and children.	Entrance fees plus a 50% discount on federal recreation use fees for most facilities and services (excludes concessions and special recreation permits).	Obtain it IN PERSON at any national park, national wildlife refuge, Corps of Engineers, Forest Service or Bureau of Land Management office. Proof of medically determined permanent disability or eligibility for receiving benefits under federal law must be shown
Shasta-Trinity Annual Pass 	Annual pass for use of the developed boat launch facilities at the McCloud Boat Ramp and for recreating above 10,000 feet on Mt. Shasta.	General Public	One year from date of purchase	$25	Admits the pass owner and any accompanying passengers in a private vehicle. Also admits pass owner to recreate above 10,000 feet on Mt. Shasta.	User fee	Purchase it IN PERSON at the Mt. Shasta or McCloud Ranger Stations . Call (530)926-4511 for additional vendors.
Standard Mt. Shasta Summit Pass 	Climbing pass for recreating above 10,000 feet on Mt. Shasta.	General Public	One climb, up to three days.	$15	Admits pass owner to recreate above 10,000 feet on Mt. Shasta.	User fee	Purchase it IN PERSON at the Mt. Shasta or McCloud Ranger Stations , or at an on-site fee tube at Mt. Shasta Trailheads.
Daily Developed Boat Launch Pass 	Daily pass for use of the McCloud Boat Ramp.	General Public	Daily	$5	Admit the pass owner and any accompanying passengers in a private vehicle.	User fee	Purchase it at an on-site fee tube at the McCloud Boat Ramp.

- A private vehicle is defined as any noncommercial vehicle that is being used for private recreational purposes. This includes passenger automobiles, vans, campers, and company-owned vehicles that are leased or rented for private recreation purposes.
- Passes are not replaceable, refundable, or transferable. Annual passes and National Parks Pass may be purchased at gifts.
- The Golden Eagle Passport does NOT include concessionaire services, however, concessionaires will honor the Golden Age/Access Passports according to the terms of their current permit.
- In some cases where per person use fees are charged, the 50% discount will be given to the pass owner only: for example, cave tours, elevator services, or camping.
- Golden Passports are NOT valid for fees related to facility or equipment rental (cabins, lookouts, day/overnight group sites), special conservation programs, managed off highway vehicle areas, transportation systems, reservation services, or permits of any kind.

* Golden Eagle Passports are NOT valid at campgrounds, developed boat launches or for concessionaire services; consequently, Golden Eagle Passports do NOT apply to fee sites on the Shasta-Trinity National Forest.