

Augspurger #4407

Oregon

Length: 8 miles

Trail Uses:

Facilities available:

Season of Use: March - December

Difficulty: Most Difficult Hiker Only

Elevation: High: 3,200, Low: 150 feet

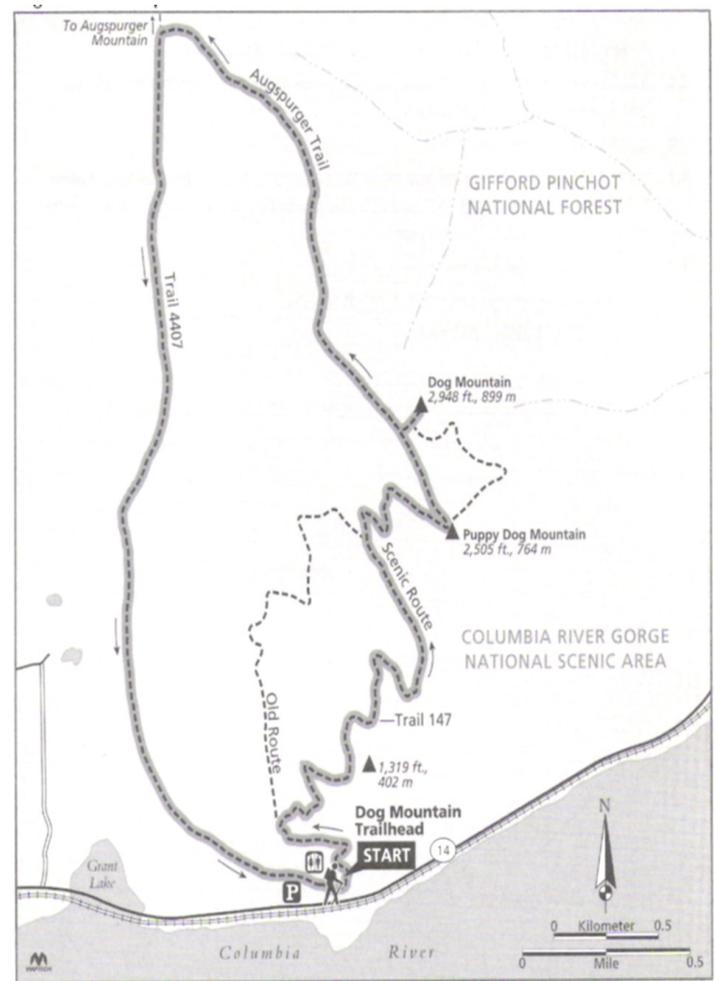

Visitor Use: Heavy

Access: State Hwy 14, nine miles east of Stevenson after mile post 53.

Description: The Augspurger Mountain Trail shares a trailhead with the Dog Mountain Trail, offering a gentle loop opportunity with the Dog Mountain Trail. A 1.5 mile connector trail ties this trail into the Dog Mountain Trail. The Augspurger Trail continues for another 4 miles to its terminus in a gravel pit.

There are plans to add this system into the Grassy Knoll Trail #146 and to add a section of trail along the Little Wind River. For more information, please check with the Columbia River Gorge Scenic Area at (541) 308-1700.

Features: Outstanding views of the Columbia River Gorge, numerous volcano peaks and wildflowers in season.

Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area – Augspurger Trail Photos

