

Economic Action Programs Whitman County, Washington

One of the most productive farming areas in the nation, Whitman County ships wheat, barley, peas and lentils worldwide. It is also home to Washington State University, the second-largest university in the state.

Recipient	Project Name	Federal ID	Funds
			USFS	Leveraged	Total
Facility Construction/Environmental Improvement
W.S.U. Research Foundation	Fiber Optics Cable	WARD-94-003	$50,000	$73,000	$123,000

