

NEWS RELEASE

March 28, 2007

Contact: Tami Paulsen
541-523-1332

Town Hall Meeting to be held in Riggins, Idaho

Baker City, March 28, 2007. The Wallowa-Whitman National Forest will host a Town Hall Meeting in Riggins, Idaho on April 9. The meeting will be held at the Best Western Salmon Rapids Lodge from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

“This is an opportunity for informal discussion about current projects and happenings in Hells Canyon,” said Mary DeAgüero, Hells Canyon National Recreation Area District Ranger. “We hope you will plan to attend.”

A variety of topics, including an update on the Blue Mountains Forest Plan Revision, Travel Management Planning, the Invasive Weeds Environmental Impact Statement, and a summary of current activities in the National Recreation Area will be presented.

For more information, please contact Judy Wing, Wallowa-Whitman National Forest Public Affairs Officer, at 541-523-1246 or Tami Paulsen, Forest Plan Revision Team Public Affairs Specialist, at 541-523-1332.

