

Map of KQDC which is area within black boundary line. Blue rectangles are individual one-square mile deer density areas with deer density per square mile; green circles enclose areas of high deer density. Hunters are encouraged to hunt these areas where deer abundance about 3X higher than the rest of the area and where deer impact is heaviest on tree regeneration and wildlife habitat.

