

GREEN MOUNTAIN FOLIAGE FESTIVAL

Sunday, October 2
1 - 5PM
Sugarbush Resort

CELEBRATING THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

Join us for a family-friendly, fall day celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Weeks Act – the landmark environmental law that led to the creation of nearly 20 million acres of national forest lands in the eastern United States, our forests, and all they have to offer. This free, public event is part of a national celebration of the Weeks Act and honors Vermont's tradition of conservation and partnership.

Gate House Lodge · Lincoln Peak at Sugarbush Resort · 102 Forest Drive · Warren, VT 05674

ACTIVITIES:

- live music by The Starline Rhythm Boys
- food and drink concessions
- conservation exhibits
- special recognition ceremony
- local premiere of "Legacy of the Weeks Act" film
- free fall foliage chairlift rides
- nature tours
- heritage resource discussion

For more information, call or e-mail Ethan Ready, Green Mountain National Forest, 802-747-6760 / eready@fs.fed.us
www.fs.fed.us/r9/gmf

