

Chapter 4- List of Preparers

The following individuals are primarily responsible for developing the analysis and the document. They are not listed in any particular order.

John Calabrese
Position:	Forest Archeologist
Education:	B.A., Latin American Studies, The College of the University of Chicago; M.A., Anthropology, University of Kentucky; PhD, Archaeology, University of the Witwatersrand (Johannesburg, South Africa)
Experience:	3 years with private archaeological consulting firms, US Northeast and Middle Atlantic; 5 years as university Lecturer, concurrent with five years as private archaeological consultant, southern Africa; 4 years with USDA, Forest Service, Archeologist
Contribution:	Heritage Resources

Lewis Blodgett
Position:	Forester
Education:	B.S. Forestry, B.S. Natural Resource Recreation Management, North Carolina State University
Experience:	27 years with USDA Forest Service
Contribution:	Economics, Economic Justice, Human Health and Safety

Kent Karriker
Position:	Botanist/Ecologist
Education:	B.S. Fisheries and Wildlife Sciences, North Carolina State University; M.S. Wildlife Biology, North Carolina State University
Experience:	2 years USDA Forest Service as a Wildlife Biologist; 10 years with a private consulting firm as a Biological Technician, Biologist, Project Manager, and Senior Scientist
Contribution:	Ecological and botany Resources

Don Palmer
Position:	Recreation and Wilderness Program Manager
Education:	A.A.S. Recreation Management, Butler College
Experience:	29 years USDA Forest Service primarily in Recreation and Wilderness Management
Contribution:	Recreation and Scenery Management

O'Dell Tucker
Position:	South Zone NEPA Coordinator
Education:	B.S. in Forest Management, West Virginia University, M.S. in Forestry West Va. University (Minor emphasis in Forest Policy)
Experience:	5 Years Forest Service, 4 Years NEPA Analyst/Coordinator, 10 Years

Lower Williams Vegetation Supplemental Draft Impact Statement – Chapter 4 List of Preparers

	Private Consulting Forester and Westvaco Paper Company
Contribution:	Team Leadership, Writing/Editing, NEPA Review

Thomas Cain
Position:	Hydrologist
Education:	B.S. Environmental Science, Water Resources, Oregon State University
Experience:	27 years USDA Forest Service as Hydrologist
Contribution:	Hydrology

Jennifer Condon
Position:	Assistant Forest Soil Scientist
Education:	B.S. Agronomy, Colorado State University
Experience:	7 years USDA Forest Service as Soils Scientist
Contribution:	Soil Resources

Stephanie Connolly
Position:	Forest Soil Scientist
Education:	B.S. Agronomy, West Virginia University; M.S. Agronomy with an Emphasis in Soil Chemistry, Colorado State University
Experience:	1 year Pocahontas County Economic Development Authority- Floodplain Mitigation Coordinator; 3 years with USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service, Soil Survey Division (Idaho and North Carolina); 6 years with USDA Forest Service, Forest Soil Scientist
Contribution:	Acid Deposition – Soil Resources

Tim Henry
Position:	Zone Recreation Forester
Education:	B.S. Forest Management, University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point
Experience:	30 years USDA Forest Service as Timber and Recreation Manager
Contribution:	Recreation

Patricia Felton
Position:	GIS Cartographer
Education:	B.S. Forest Resource Management and Horticulture, Va. Polytechnical Institute and State University
Experience:	11 years USDA Forest Service as GIS Cartographer, 7 years as USDA FS Forester
Contribution:	GIS

Jay Chapman
Position:	South Zone Engineer, EIT
Education:	B.S. Civil Engineer, Tennessee Tech University
Experience:	4 years USDA Forest Service as Engineer
Contribution:	Roads Analysis Project

Jane Bard
Position:	South Zone Silviculturist
Education:	B.S. in Forest Resource Management, Pennsylvania State University
Experience:	29 years USDA Forest Service as Forester/Silviculturist
Contribution:	Silviculture/Vegetation

Roger Ridegway
Position:	Timber Sale Administrator
Education:	Studied Botany at Marshall University
Experience:	28 Years with USDA Forest Service as Forest Technician
Contribution:	Logging Plan

