

Carson National Forest
Camino Real Ranger District
New Mexico
2001

Before

After

Forest cover type is pinyon juniper. Forest management treatment was hand thinning to reduce the number of trees to improve forest health, reduce fuels, and allow the reintroduction of fire. The local community utilized the trees removed.