Reflections on My Life and Work in Urban Forestry: Past, present, and future

Wednesday, December 13, 2017 | 1:00 – 2:15pm ET

Greg McPherson has spent over 30 years conducting research that has informed urban forest management and fueled advocacy for tree planting and stewardship. On the eve of his retirement from the USDA Forest Service, he will share his observations regarding urban forestry's most memorable events, intrepid leaders, and ground-breaking research.
