Cooperator Agreement No. _____

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING Between The
PUEBLO OF JEMEZ
And The
USDA, FOREST SERVICE
SANTA FE NATIONAL FOREST

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU) is hereby made and entered into by and between the Pueblo of Jemez, hereinafter referred to as "Pueblo," and the USDA, Forest Service, Santa Fe National Forest, hereinafter referred to as the "U.S. Forest Service."

Background: The Pueblo is a sovereign government and federally-recognized Native American Tribe, as stated in the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Federal Register Notice - Indian Entities Recognized and Eligible to Receive Services from the United States Bureau of Indian Affairs, and is dedicated to the preservation and protection of its cultural heritage within ancestral lands. The Pueblo's ancestral lands have been recognized by the Indian Claims Commission and other guiding documents.

The U.S. Forest Service manages National Forest System (NFS) lands within the described ancestral area. The United States government and associated agencies have a unique legal relationship with Native American Tribal governments, as set forth in the Constitution of the United States, statutes, executive orders, and case law. The November 5, 2009, Executive Memorandum on Tribal Consultation, reaffirmed the governmental relationship to Native American Tribes as sovereign nations and committed to regular and meaningful consultation and collaboration with Tribal officials in policy decisions that have Tribal implications. Executive Order 13175 to Federal agencies reaffirmed the United States governments' recognition of Native American Tribes as sovereign nations and its commitment to work with Native American Tribes on a government-to-government basis.

It is the policy of each National Forest to implement their programs and activities within the context of fulfilling trust responsibilities, respecting traditional Native religious beliefs, and providing research, technology transfer, and technical assistance to Tribes (FSM 1563.03). The U.S. Forest Service has legal commitments and Federal trust responsibilities to protect and preserve cultural sites, traditional cultural properties, human remains, religious freedoms, and sacred objects of the Pueblo.

Title: Jemez Pueblo Collaboration and Consultation

- I. PURPOSE: The purpose of this MOU is to document the cooperation between the parties to establish and document a procedure to formalize a process for government-to-government relations that is consistent between the U.S. Forest Service and the Pueblo, to promote the increased cooperation and understanding of natural and cultural resource management between the U.S. Forest Service and the Pueblo, to facilitate better communication and understanding of resource management on the National Forest, and promote increased respect for the traditions of the people of the Pueblo.

By implementation of this MOU, all parties agree that a structure for a formal government-to-government relationship exists between them, based on the unique status between the Federal government and federally-recognized Native American Tribes as established by the United States Constitution, statutes, regulations, case law, executive orders, and policies.

II. STATEMENT OF MUTUAL BENEFIT AND INTERESTS:

The U.S. Forest Service is mandated to carry out multiple-use management on NFS lands and is interested in providing the American public with a wide variety of goods and services. The U.S. Forest Service is a land management agency dedicated to the wise use and management of resources including natural, cultural, and archaeological resources of the Nation.

The Pueblo is a sovereign domestic dependent nation and a federally-recognized Native American Tribe with aboriginal territories and historical interests in the conservation and management of the natural and cultural resources of NFS lands administered by the U.S. Forest Service.

It is therefore of mutual interest and benefits both the U.S. Forest Service and the Pueblo to promote the furtherance of dialogue and coordination on natural and cultural resource issues by Native American Tribes.

- C. Identify programmatic U.S. Forest Service activities that the Tribe agrees do not need reoccurring consultation (e.g., trail maintenance, road maintenance, administrative site maintenance) when no extenuating conditions exist.

- D. Assign the Cultural Resources Specialist to work with appropriate cultural representatives, and other knowledgeable Tribal members, to identify issues, locations, and areas of special importance to the Pueblo that may be located on the Forest, and work with the District Ranger or her/his designee to locate these areas on the ground.
